

Lancaster Boarding School v1.7

This is more of a guide to your stat changes than a walkthrough. I'm not going to tell you how to play your game, but just show you what the consequences of your choices are. The three main stats, nice, manly, and jerk are colour coded for your reference. Nice is green, manly is blue, and jerk is purple. Currently there are three character stats: Anna's Love is a shade of blue, Eve is a dull red, and staring at Rose is pink...or...rose! Get it! Eh? Eh? Pfff, everyone's a critic. Finally, stats that don't seem to accumulate past one are a dull yellow. Obviously, these colours are libel to change as the game progresses.

Changelog

Prologue

Stop Nice +2 (Was Nice +1)

Version 1.1

Was labelled Version 1.2 in the code but has been changed to Version 1.1 to reflect actual version numbers.

Do nothing HelpRose +0 & Jerk +1 (Didn't have a HelpRose stat originally)

Finish on her butt Two scenes (Was originally one scene)

Version 1.2

Added the line:

UsedTeacher =1

Different internal dialogue

...after the lines:

AnnaLove =?

LibraryEve =?

Different scenes and dialogues. No stat change.

(I probably just missed it when I wrote the walkthrough from before)

Version 1.4

The *NOTE* won't break your game. You'll just miss one line of internal dialogue, so don't panic!

Version 1.5

A lot of choices were added to the script from the beginning of the game up until version 1.3. I mean a lot! The good news is these new choices don't affect any stats, but if I were to hazard a guess, I can see a major change in the near future where you'll probably have to restart the game.

In the Prologue, I changed how the skinny dipping choices are presented in the walkthrough. It doesn't change anything in the game. It just wasn't in the same format as the rest of the walkthrough.

The *NOTE* in version 1.4 was removed. The code has been fixed in the game.

Version 1.6

In version 1.2 I had the choices: "That's not a dance!" & "I like beer more" swapped. I corrected it so that, "I like beer more" is the set of choices that happen first.

I noticed in the left column, when a stat should read "=1" I sometimes had "+1". No one seemed to have been confused by my mistake but I fixed them because it was pissing me off ;)

Version 1.7

In version 1.5, the line, " Let's get out of here Rose", was a stat change of Nice +2 instead of Nice +1.
In version 1.6, the AnnaScenes =1 was missing the Else part of the tree and was fixed here.
