

Introduction

Welcome to the walkthrough of the game Sexual Duty. The game can easily be played and enjoyed without a walkthrough, but if you want to be sure you don't miss anything (or if you get stuck) you can use this. Please keep in mind that this is a walkthrough for getting all the scenes only. It does not go into detail about where to find gold/items each day. Just look around and interact with the yellow circles and you should be good.

Most days in the game are split up into 3 sections: Morning (Inside Rising Dawn), Outside and Evening (Inside Rising Dawn). Outside is when you leave the Rising Dawn to go explore Sandsinger village.

The secret scenes in the game (the first one can be accessed on Day 3) are also in this walkthrough. But I put them on the last page of this document so those who do not want to be spoiled about them (because they want to figure them out for themselves) can avoid looking at the answer.

Map of Sandsinger

Here is a very zoom-ed out map of Sandsinger. All houses and some other important locations are marked on it. If the walkthrough mentions a house and you don't know where the house is, use this map to figure it out.
