The game will put you in charge of a small starship, but first first. By starting a new game you will come face to face with a gorgeous hottie (Becca), she will ask you a few questions that will determine the MC's first and last name. She will offer you the chance to go through a tutorial. Accept as it will allow you to enjoy more time with her.

CHAPTER1- CHAPTER 10

After the tutorial you will don the mantle of the lieutenant and introduce yourself to the crew. Depending on your approach, further interactions might be possible. Once you got to know the crew, you will be able to explore the ship, interact with objects and get to know the crew even further.

*Sooner or later you'll move the plot forward and there will be more choices. And the chapter will end . More Becca! –try to contain your boner or if you are a woman calm your clit- and a recap of the things you managed to find. There's no need to for a more accurate WT.
